NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY JANUARY 5, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Cheboygan Mich., as Second Class Matter.

THE CITY.

George G. Wharton at Vanderbilt on business, returns to day.

It was 6 degrees below zero, yesterday morning with a blizzard blow.

The band ball was one of the brilliant and enjoyable affairs of the holidays.

There are forty feet of ice on the straits, piled up between Mackinaw and St. Ignace.

The snow is now in piles on all the roadsides. The wind is at work making and shifting its depth.

Mrs. C. W. Farr returned home New Years eve, just in time to receive a host of callers on New Years day.

Township Highway Overseers' receipts —best form in the market—neatly printed and bound at the TRIBUNE job office.

Now is the time to take advantage of the great bargain offered by Will Smith, who we understand is offering good dry lumber for $4. per M.

The Christmas holidays were unusually hospitable. Many calls were made for the first time. The social spirit of 1884 argues well for the freedom, good sense and refined taste of Cheboygan.

Mr. Hyman has several strong, serviceable and sound horses in the Cass stable for sale. Our Lumbermen will consult their interests to call on him.
The horses show up as of the first order.

Any one in need of stationery, such as billheads, letterheads, envelopes, &c., will do well to consult the TRIBUNE job office, its established reputation for neat work at reasonable prices insures satisfaction.

The Week of Prayer will be observed by the members of the M. E. Church, Cheboygan. Meetings every night next week, beginning Monday, Jan. 7th., at 7:30 P. M. Rev. L. E. Davis, Presiding Elder, will assist in the meetings.

The stir the late snow storm has given the logging interests is everywhere apparent. Calls for more men are heard.
The wages too will rate higher. It is the clearing away of the mist from our money world. It is the meeting of square dealing of labor and capital.

Miss Nellie Melville, with her friend, Miss Edith Ramsay, was among the honored reception places on New Years. It was one of the few places where the Misses done the honors. All who went there were delighted. A gracious welcome opened its pleasures for the callers and Miss Nellie, and her friend, Miss Edith, will be pleasant remembrances until another New Year comes. May they have many as pleasant New Years.

The most notable feature of our New Year's calls was the absence of wine at the receptions. Mrs. Waterman, Boggs, Chandler, Adams, and Miss Nellie Melville received their friends; there were the choicest viands and coffee, but no wine. The ladies can do more to stop drinking than all else, but it is in their place as presiding in those ceremonies of social life, where man is brought to recognize the charms of a refined and elegant behavior.

Among the new residences finished this fall, is that of our friend Charles Nuite, on Bailey and Locust streets. In style, it is of the cottage order, but arranged with the purpose of comfort and elegance. The front door is through a turret, running up sentinel like, the windows on a level of those of the second floor, enclosed in panels. The first floor contains a large sitting room, opening by folding doors into the dining room, which connects with the kitchen.
The parlor on the east side, and entered from the main hall, is of two large rooms, accessible through double doors.
There is also a sleeping room. The second story has six sleeping rooms, opening from two halls. The heating of the whole house is through four chimneys. The turret fronts the house, and with its relieving colors, adds to its finish. The design is excellent. The house is lighted by two-sash windows, well set in their frames, which are plain, but in good taste. It has a fine bay window.
Mr. Nuite's residence is another addition to the growing desire of our thriving citizens, in surrounding themselves with houses of comfort and elegance.

A hanger on is a friend that sticketh —The school opened with an average attendance and several new scholars.

We were pleased to see the happy face of H. A. Wetmore, of Concord. He remains a week.

Hon. Geo. W. Bell had a company of friends enjoy themselves at his elegant residence lately.

Sheriff Harrington, has been to Ionia, and left two boarders in the State institution, and is ready to take two more.

The straits are full of heavy ice in this vicinity and if cold weather keeps on will soon bridge over from shore to shore.

A young man employed in one of Thompson Smith's camps had his leg broken by a log. Dr. Gerow reports him doing well.

Butler went out of office Tuesday, but not out of politics. We hope he may be spared another year, although Democrats don't see the use of it.

Mrs. Whiting is going to Detroit to meet her husband, who seeks the medical skill of that city to improve his shattered health. Will has many friends who wish him well.

There is talk of the elegant prop. St.
Paul being made into a lumber barge this winter, her owners making little or no money with her for the last three years as a passenger boat.

Burt Lawrence, brother of Geo. Lawrence, the genial Spencer House clerk, left New Years morning for Chicago, where he will remain the rest of the winter, having made a six weeks visit with his friends here.

Two big fat rats were caught in a trap at Armstrong's meat shop; they were taken alive to Dr. DuPaul's ferret and turned loose. It is said the ferret made short work of them and those who witnessed the show say the ferret understands his business.

C. W. Farr is agent now for twenty-four ocean steamship lines to and from all parts of the world, and is prepared to issue tickets to and from the old country as cheap as can be procured in any city in the United States.

The prohibitionists gave the Democratic party power in Ohio. Liquor dealers demand that the party make the business respectable. Let prohibition-ists stay with the free whisky party until they achieve their satisfaction.

A runaway horse belonging to Joe.
Allair, came dashing along Main street at a tremendous gale on New Years Day, dragging John Dodd by the reins, but John being equal to the emergency and not losing his grip, turned him into the barn without any damage.

Wednesday evening little Geary, the printers devil, took a notion to serenade a few of the telephone subscribers, several were connected together and the music he produced on a harmonica was most excellent, and was listened to and relished by subscribers in different parts of the town.

The following music will be rendered at the Independent church to morrow evening.

Anthem.—The Lord is My Light.

Hymn.—704.

Anthem.—Wake the song of Jubilee.

Hymn.—697.

Solo.—Selected.

Hymn.—700.

Nine thousand business firms failed in 1883, more than any previous year since 1878. To have so many failures in prosperous times is a warning to legislators that the situation is not trusted. The Democrats assaulting the tariff will destroy business, the entire business of the country.

A woman tired of life, secured laudanum, took enough to enable her to solve the mystery of death, but repenting sent for a doctor and wanted her stomach settled. A settler was swallowed, the pump was used, the lady was walked around the city quite freely, her life was saved, and satisfied with her experience is willing to live until she dies.

The New Orleans Picayune changes base when Democrats are killed. Of the Louisiana family quarrel it says: "in numerous instances the Democratic voters of the State have been made the victims of fraudulent practices in parochial committees, primaries, and conventions, and their will overruled and stifled by bands of ruthless ruffians." Ruthless ruffians is a strong name for a Southern paper to apply to Southern Democrats.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FIC- TION.

A Startling Discovery Made in Che- boygan.

A Deliberately Planned Effort to Induce Women and Children into a place of Beautiful Scenery and Rich Adornments, where the Ingenious, Skilled Operator their Faces.

Fact upon Fact to Establish the Charge Made Concerning a Gentleman who has Stood very High Socially, and what a Tribune Reporter Found Out by Finding Out.

The holiday season was so joyous that the overflowing good feeling reached to all classes and the wish is often expressed that the gladsome period were more often and longer. With a wish to discover some of the means of scattering sunshine and joy, we naturally dropped into a bright, cheerful place where we were led to think that in some sense joyousness might be made to last all the year. It had been commonly reported in the city that G. S. Wixson was the most successful photographer ever in Cheboygan. We thought we would investigate, and we must confess that among the good things of which the community has a right to be proud is the

ART GALLERY,

presided over by G. S. Wixson, as true a gentleman as can be found, as attentive to business as is possible, and so thoroughly skilled in his profession that he is really

AN ARTIST.

He has a passion for enlarged success in his business and this has so stimulated his talent in his work that he has acquired fame and success. He is

OF CHEBOYGAN.

That is he is here to remain for life, being interested financially, and having such a custom established that it would be foolish for him to think of going elsewhere.

FIRST CLASS WORK is done at the Wixson gallery, as good as can be done in larger cities, and to know this is quite a satisfaction to any one living here.

THE GEM.

Many of these are ordered. They are tin types and are so cheap and durable and are executed so perfectly that many prefer them.

THE PHOTOGRAPH

is sent out by hundreds from these Art Rooms, from the Vignette card to the largest size

FRAMING PICTURES.

These are produced in a manner that bespeaks the master workman, and those, in size 10 by 12 inches, are handsome enough for any parlor. The

LOCKET

is here remembered, and the human face divine is made so beautiful and eloquent that the person wearing the locket can only understand.

FRAMES

are furnished for those who wish, of any quality and size, much cheaper than they can be secured elsewhere.

PORTRAITS.

Those wishing portraits in ink, water color or oil can secure the work done through Mr. Wixson at lower rates than can be given by traveling agents whose time and labor are to be paid for. Mr.
Wixson deals only with established artists.

DECEASED FRIENDS.

If death robs you of a loved one of whom you have not a picture, only give the word to Mr. Wixson and a correct, likeness will be taken.

RESIDENCES.

A picture of W. S. Humphrey's residence taken by Wixson, who has taken many residences in our place, shows the true work done. Mr. Wixson will keep a team and wagon for this purpose when spring opens.

ENLARGING.

Pictures are enlarged in the most artistic manner. Mr. W. has ordered new and elegant scenery, has all needful appliances, first-class help, and will do cheaper and better work than can be found in Northern Michigan. Special attention given to accommodate those from a distance. Remember, Wixson, the Artist, in Backus building.
